

I think Indian's no-call list is one of the best things to come along recently. I can eat supper without being disturbed and in general it has prevented the annoying daily sales calls. I don't want to see this law amended or altered. Thanks.